Waves Are Dancing

Waves are dancing awesomely
A dangerous dance
Waves are trying to possess me
But I had chosen the right way for my life
And waves and winds
Will not possess me.

I had chosen my way
I pray not to drown
I will not give myself to the winds
To drift on false ways.

Waves are dancing a dangerous dance
Waves are overpowering, a dance of evil
Waves are striding with death at their ends
And the wind carries the waves to nothingness.

But I had chosen a way for my life
I will not sail to nothingness
I am sailing far away, where there is no death
Where God is waiting for me.

For a long time I searched for the way
Rescuing myself from the reefs
And ruined rocks
But I raised my hands to heaven
And prayed for mercy
And God had shown the way
Beyond death and evil.
