Secret runaway

Just on the road, heading for a brighter day

The future's now unknown

There's no way, no way

Just like the english army

I'm not saying I know what's right

My life is not for you

And their not going to take me tonight

Try to run away

No where to hide

No where to stay

Your future's now unknown

There's no way, no way

Just like the english army

I'm not saying I know what's right

My life is not for you

And their not going to take me tonight

Secret runaway

Just on the road, heading for a brighter day

Your future's now unknown

There's no way, no way

Just like the english army

I'm not saying I know what's right

My life is not for you

And their not going to take me

Just like the english army

I'm not saying I know what's right

My life is not for you

And their not going to take me tonight

Not going to take me tonight
