yeeeeaaaaahhhh,
One said to the other, you'll never find another now that your're on your own, to discover you're living undercover, now that you're on your own.. own

(verse 1)

she's not really bothered by a riot in milan, only get's excited by the cheap shop brands, dressed up in a number that she got from Japan, powdered up, converted with solarium tan you know that she won't leave here alone, (know that she won't leave here alone) she aint never gunna leave here alone)

(chorus)

now that you're on your own, to discover you're living undercover now that you're on you're own,

(verse 2)

She's not really in touch with the government plan, much to busy lookin for a one night stand, you dont have to show her, before you get to know her, thats she's the type that plays the fool, i dont understand.

you know that she won't leave here alone, (know that she won't leave here alone)

now that you're on your own, to discover
you're living undercover now that you're on you're own,

(guitar solo)

you know that she won't leave here alone, (know that she won't leave here alone)
she aint never gunna leave here alone)

she's not really bothered by a riot in milan, only get's excited by the cheap shop,
dressed up in a number that she got from Japan, powdered up, converted solarium tan

she won't leave here alone) she aint ever gunna leave here alone (ever gunna leave here alone) ohh, you know that she wont leave here alone (know that she won't ever leave here alone) never gunna leave here alone

One said to the other, you'll never find another
now that you're on your own, to discover you're living undercover now that you're on you're,

you're living undercover now that you're on you're own,
own
Own, own
