You know we tried to make you understand

We tried to make you realise

Her fame is down and time is up

But somehow it don't seem enough

Cos the world wouldn't listen anymore

CHORUS

Caught by social evil

Wasn't streetwise after all

Was she there at all?

Pictures in the mirror

Pictures she never knew

Pictures in the mirror

Always reflecting you

Not such an ordinary life

Pictures in the mirror (twice)

The sun goes down

The moon appears on the horizon

The streets are bare

She walks alone

REPEAT CHORUS
