I dont know enough about the things you do
I dont know enough to say I really know you but I already fell in love with you and if you knew, what would you do?

I can tell alot by the things you wear I can tell your gona be a millionaire
but I already fell in love with you
and if you knew, what would you do?

I stop myself from trying
I should've talked to you and now inside I'm dying
what would you do?

I dont know enough about the things you do
I dont know enough to say I really know you
but I already fell in love with you
and if you knew, what would you do?

--Music--

I stop myself from tryin
I should've talked to you
and now inside I'm dying
what would you do?

I dont know enough about the things you do
I dont know enough to say I really know you
but I already fell in love with you
and if you knew, what would you do?
what would you do?
what would you do?
what would you do?
