My wife and kids left me,
My job is on the line,
My life is in the toilet but,
But I still feel just fine.

I've tried over working,
Staying up at night,
I've eaten all the wrong foods but,
But I still can't get it right.

chorus:
Gimme gimme nervous breakdown.

I wanna lose my marbles,
Go completely spare,
I wanna froth up at the mouth
And fall off of my chair.

Michelangelo had one, Botticelli had one,
Ludivico Di Medici had one, Dante had one,
Titian had one, Raphael had one,
I want to one too.
