"Down"

It's hard when

You try 2 survive

And try to hold on

As we will go down

And we will fall down

One day I will go into a new state of mind I guess

Untill that day

I'll try 2 know my name

I try to blink but go numb

So it throws mud in my eye

I gasp for air but there's none

My lungs explode inside

I should know better than 2 let things get to me

I should know better than 2 let let them get to me

I should know better than 2 let you get to me

I should know better than 2 let let me get to me

It's hard when

You try 2 survive

And try to hold on

So we will go down

And we will go
