I'll tell you like it is, I just want this kiss.
I want to touch you, like I'll never touch again.
I'll tell you what I'll be, I'll be everything.
I'll make you want me. I'll make you need me.

There's a thousand reasons, why I'm breathing now.
But you're the only one, the only one I care for.
There's a thousand reasons, why I'm breathing now.
But you're the only one, the only one I care for.

I'll tell you what I need. I need you feeling me, press my lips to your skin and then,
hear you whispering to me:
"Baby all I need, is you needing me,
give me your lips and let's kiss
I'll give you everything"

There's a thousand reasons, why I'm breathing now.
But you're the only one, the only one I care for.
There's a thousand reasons, why I'm breathing now.
But you're the only one, the only one I care for.

Your heart looks best when it rests in my hands, I swear
I'll hold it gently.
Your lips look best when they're pressed to mine, I swear I'll kiss you gently.
I'll hold you gently, I swear I'll kiss you gently.
