I swore I'd never feel this way.
I'd never give my heart away again...
But I can't hide.
Life makes sense with you by my side.
I swore id never let my eyes
Get lost in another's eyes but yours
They capture me
Deep brown...the most beautiful thing.
Chorus
Take my hand, take my life.
Take this world by my side and I will never let you go.

I swore I'd never let my hands
Mold to another's hands; but yours,
They were made for mine.
Holding you here sends chills down my spine.
I swore I'd never let my lips
Curve to another kiss
But this is a kiss that speaks words.
Your lips say things
That I've never heard.
