Let's draw hearts that carve into the sand
I'll smile as I hold your hand
Let's listen to the waves crash
As our hearts collide.

Let's lace our lips together when
Your hair flows in the gentle wind
Let's swim into the sunset
Where you and I can hide

You are my kind of Beautiful, Beautiful
You are my kind of Beautiful, Beautiful
So chase what you feel I swear this is real
And Kiss me hard
I'll stare in your eyes, share your butterflies
And steal your heart

You're beautiful like I have never seen
I want this so bad, I feel crazy. Crazy...

You are my kind of Beautiful, Beautiful
You are my kind of Beautiful, Beautiful
So chase what you feel I swear this is real
And Kiss me hard
I'll stare in your eyes, share your butterflies
And steal your heart

You're beautiful like I have never seen
I want this so bad, I feel crazy. Crazy...

Let's draw hearts that carve into the sand
I'll smile as I hold your hand
Let's listen to the waves crash
As our hearts collide.
