In the later forties

When Diddy Levine lived with Eunice King

He gave her the ring that she wore

Janice the smiling daughter

Who came from a marriage way before

But Eunice was the father that she always saw

Though they never never never never told her

She always knew the score

You see kids were so much wiser after the wars

But Diddy hadn't have enough

She had to get some more

On a ration piece of paper, she wrote "Eunice, I'm not sure"

And with her child in her arms

She went looking for a fling

Besides, she didn't like the name Mrs. King

The first time that she heard Damper Dan

Was on the radio

Crooning at a volume that was way, way down low

Diddy was surprised to hear that Damper's name was Dan

Soon after he was a calling
And he asked, begged and pleaded for her hand
Damper's heart was dampened
When Diddy answered "no, no, no, no, no"
But if she changed her mind, she said "Dan, I'll let you know"
With her child in her arms
She went looking for man
Besides, she didn't like the name Damper Dan
Janice the smiling daughter grew up to be a teenage queen
Through all of her mother's lovers
She kept the name Levine
Behind the picture house she first made her scene
With a boy called Allister
Who was dating a friend called Celine
And Celine wasn't mad when Janice came in between
But Allister got scared when he heard
And he joined the USA Marines
Inheritance, you see, runs through every family
Who is to say what is to be is any better
Over and over it goes, goodness and badness winds blow
Over and over, over and over
Over and over and over and over and over and over and over
The good and the bad winds blow
