Here I Go Again (Lynott)

-----

So we packed our bags and headed for the North sea

There was Eric, Brian, Freaky Pete, Charlie, Frankie Lee and me

I was feeling homesick but I was in good company

We went sailing

We came ashore long before the fighting broke

Saw the sign and headed for the big smoke

We met an old woman of the roads, she said "This life is but a joke"

But we kept on trucking

I'm always thinking, I'm thinking

I'm thinking how much I think about it all

While you're just dreaming, just dreaming, just dreaming

Had you dreamt it all

But I'm the one who's fallen

The one you hear

Here calling across your floor

Here I go again feeling low down

I'll never know, but then I came from the wrong side of town

We were like the lonesome outlaws

We would go which way the wind did blow

Down the open trail that nobody knows

Sometimes it gets lonesome

But there you go feeling low down
