

Lizzy Thin

"Mexican Blood Lynott"

Visit "Mexican Blood Lynott" on MotoLyrics.com

She was a Mexican girl, she had Mexican blood

I seen it the night that she died

She was a Mexican girl, she had Mexican blood

Oh how she could drive that Mexican boy wild

He's on the run near El Paso

And he'll cross all across America

He's leaving behind old Mexico

And his girl that pretty Mexican girl that died

She had Mexican blood

He was a Mexican boy with a Mexican smile

And he drank a little tequila

He was a Mexican boy in a Mexican town

And oh how he loved his young senorita

Now and then he'd cross the Rio Grande

And he'd come back a wanted hunted man

And his Mexican girl was his Mexican prize

And that girl was his girl that pretty Mexican girl that died

She had Mexican blood

He was a cowboy's boy and a cowboy's son

And on his side he had a gun
He was a cowboy's boy, he was the law
He was out looking for someone
That night he rode into town
The Mexican boy tried to gun him down
That's when his heart broke up inside 'cause lying on the ground
Was his girl that pretty Mexican girl, she died
She had Mexican blood
He loved her and she loved him
And when he lost her
Oh how it hurt him
He loved her
I seen it the night she died
That's when he lost her
Now his heart is broken
He loved her and she loved him
And when he lost her he lost everything

Visit Lizzy Thin page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.