There's a girl I'll remember

Oh for such a long, long time

This girl I'll remember

She was an old flame of mine

Beneath the stars just sipping wine

Young lovers then in summertime

I'll always remember

That old flame of mine

Love, she comes and gove

True love, she hides then shows

My love, may I propose

That love she comes and goes

Two hearts together two hearts alight

To keep us warm on winter nights

With each dying ember

I remember that old flame of mine

Once this flame it did brightly blaze

Among the ashes there still remains

A glowing spark in my heart

For that old flame of mine
