Randolph's Tango

The senorita took off her bobby socks
She said she's gonna wear a skirt that shocks
She's pulling out all the stops
To get her Randolph back again
Meanwhile Randolph, he's back at the ranch
He's getting ready for tonight's song and dance
He's doesn't know he doesn't stand a chance
His last affair will be his last romance
The senorita will be there waiting
Don't go my Randolph slow tango with me
Underneath the Latin moonlight
The danced and seen a falling star in flight
To the strum of guitars she held him tight
She wants her Randolph back again
Meanwhile it's worthwhile for Randolph to wait
'Till he gets the nerve then he won't hesitate
He doesn't know but he's just bit the bait
He just asked if he could make a date
The senorita will be there waiting

Don't go my Randolph slow tango with me

The senorita's heart is in love

She wearing white tonight, looks as pure as a dove

She's thanking God and all the heavenly stars above

Randolph's romance is back again

Meanwhile Randolph smiles and says he'll give her ten

She doesn't come so he just counts again

And he's been there since he does not know when

He's thinks she's stood him up but in the end

The senorita won't keep him waiting

Don't go my Randolph slow tango with me

ooh la-la...

Senorita dance cheek to cheek

ooh la-la...

We will dance off into the sky
