Barry is a working man, he works from 4 to 3
He rushes in the morning with a cup of coffee
And Mary goes to work when Barry comes home
They don't wanna leave the kids anywhere alone
She says

Don't forget to give the kids a bath
Don't forget to read them a story
By the way, I left you a note on the bed
She gets in the car, as he read

When we make love, I still tremble with you
And every kiss, and every touch makes our love strong

And I know lately it's been hard to talk
Maybe this weekend we can go for a walk
Little Johnny learned his ABCs
And Mandy colored you yellow daisies

And I know lately it's been hard to talk
Maybe this weekend we can go for a walk
Little Johnny learned his ABCs
And Mandy colored you yellow daisies

When we make love, I still tremble with you
And every kiss, and every touch makes our love strong

Barry is a working man, he works from 4 to 3
He rushes in the morning with a cup of coffee
