Morning has arrived, open my eyes
Watching the sun, painting the walls with yellow light
This night I had a dream, that kind of dream
That makes you wish, you had never woken up

And I, I don't know why this dream
This dream came to me, but it was a dream

My arms had turned to wings, that kind of wings
That makes you fly, just like a bird through the sky
A journey into the clouds, higher than high
Faster than fast, suddenly I saw something strange

And I, I don't know why this dream
This dream came to me, guess what I saw

I was talking to the man in the moon
And he would help me find what's missing
Travel with the man in the moon
Different places and smiling faces

He asked about the life, life on earth
What it was like to live with a wall behind the door
I didn't know what to say, I guess he was right
We all have to fight, for making the earth a better place

And I, I don't know why this dream
This dream came to me, and guess what I saw

I was talking to the man in the moon
And he would help me find what's missing
Travel with the man in the moon
Different places and smiling faces
Talking to the man in the moon
He would help me find what's missing
Travel with the man in the moon
Different places and smiling faces
