I'm not your hero
I'm not your daddy neither
I'm on my way to
Your love side
Oh I heard the news
And it scares me to think
That I might not have you on
My chain again
Through your weeping willow
On your street I could see
Your virgin velvet body hidin'
I wanted you for me
Well I guess you fell apart
In the sunshine of your life
Well I came down wishing
To wash your feet this night
I woulda fed ya soup
Made of fables and cream
I cried at your window
I thought I heard ya scream
Through your weeping willow
On your street I could see
Your virgin velvet body hidin'
I wanted you for me
Smilin Karen
Why you starin'
You're not screamin'
You're not breathin'
Through a weeping willow
On your street I could see
Your velvet body hidin'
From me
