We search for an answer,

And when it appears

We can challenge the world with our sweat and our tears.

Through winning and losing,

The brave never bend,

The hero keeps fighting, standing tall in the end.

Time can change anything...and mend any fall.

The moment of truth is facing us all,

It's time for the hero to stand tall.

It's a time for heroes,

Time to answer the call,

It's a time for the hero in us all.

We carry the flame

For all to see

The fire and the passion, of what we can be.

Sometimes we must fight,

But we never bend

The hero keeps fighting, standing tall in the end.

Love can change anything...it's inside of us all

To reach out a hand whenever we fall.

It's time for the hero to stand tall.

It's a time for heroes,

Time to answer the call,

It's a time for the hero to stand tall.

It's a time for heroes,

When our back's to the wall

It's a time for the hero...in us all
