I took one look and something snapped inside, I said I love your eyes

You took my heart, you took my breath away, I felt my temperature rise

You said you've never loved a man this way

That it was heaven you were here to stay

Chorus:

And now you're just another fallen angel

And I hope that the fall didn't do you no harm

And now you're just another fallen angel

Falling into somebody else's arms

I took one look and I was paralyzed and was in paradise

I must admit that when I first laid eyes, you had me hypnotized

You said I'm sorry but I don't say much

And I'm in heaven when I feel your touch

Chorus

Follow your own road baby, I'll be there when you need me

To love and to comfort you

And what he got ain't enough to keep you in the air - I'll be there

You said you've never loved a man this way

That it was heaven you were here to stay

Chorus
