PART ONE)

At sunset you hear the soft parade is coming

And the cars and the beast behind, they all start humming

And ooh you got a cool machine, so let's get it runnin'

We'll break the silence of the night and you know they're gonna hear us comin'

We always see them whisper, we know they're gonna talk

They fantasize the mysteries 'bout the night and the dark

So baby one more kiss, baby one more kiss, we never have to say goodbye

Oh one more kiss, baby one more kiss, it brings a little luck to the night

Artists got their easels, they're ready on the mark

Gonna try and take the pictures of the dust and the gold in the sparks

And ooh you got a cool machine, baby let's get it runnin'

You never looked so good before and you know your time it's finally comin'

'Cause our home is the wind, you know we're gods of the mornin'

Champions of the night, when the engines are rumblin'

Our home is the wind, you know we're gods of the

mornin'

Champions of the night, when the engines are rumblin'

So just one more kiss, baby one more kiss, we never have to say goodbye

One more kiss, baby one more kiss, I never wanna see you cry

One more kiss, baby one more kiss, it brings a little luck to the night

One more kiss, baby one more kiss, we never have to say goodbye

(PART TWO)

(Ready, ready to roll, ready, ready to roll, ready, ready to roll, ready)

Under my foot gonna hit it down, take this stance
before the crowd

Sleepin' city urban fall, summer's sadness time to answer the call

(Cool machine, get it runnin', ready to roll)

Soft hands around my neck, one more kiss then it's time to connect

Leave this child, leave me all alone, this one's mine and I'm takin' it home

(Ready, ready, ready to roll) - this one's mine and I'm takin' it home

(Solo)

(PART THREE)

Now behind closed walls new histories start to rise

Of the soft parade and the heroes where they lie

And ooh you got a cool machine, baby let's get it
runnin'

You never looked so good before and you know your time it's finally comin'

'Cause our home is the wind, you know we're gods of the mornin'

Champions of the night, when the engines are rumblin'

Our home is the wind, you know we're gods of the
mornin'

Champions of the night, when the engines are rumblin'

(One more kiss, one more kiss, one more kiss, one more kiss)

(One more kiss, one more kiss)

It brings a little luck, brings a little luck to the night

(One more kiss, one more kiss) Ooh one more kiss

One more kiss, baby one more kiss, we never have to say goodbye

And ooh you got a cool machine, baby let's get it
runnin'
