She looked amazing
A fresh cut green
I felt like the skater on the prep scene
Your big blue eyes they knock the sides out

I think of Heaven and
I think of Hell
So I don't want to know you
I wanna know myself

These drinks can usually help me settle down
But they're not working
And I've lost count
Of the times you sought a fight
Scraped my insides dry

I think of Heaven and
I think of Hell
So I don't want to know you
I wanna know myself

Well we're all but grown and we're all but fine
Here's the last goodbye
Something that you want
Something that you need
It's not me

I think of Heaven and
I think of Hell
So I don't want to know you
I wanna know myself
