Be careful what you dream of it may come up and surprise you I can't confess my life's a mess
I've come to idolise you
You liken it to walking on hot coals I'll keep my boots on Wisen up and fly straight There's a shape on the horizon

In a hollow horse I'll steal my way inside your guarded heart So selfishly the needs I harbour when we are apart
My past strung out behind me, contradiction and disaster I'm in search of charity, a union I could master

We'll be as we are
When all the fools
who doubt us fade away
Fortune deep and wide Intimidated, restless in the wait

Things I chose to value I no longer have a use for I ridicule myself for all the things those symbols stood for When vanity has played a part in every leader's downfall Wait to storm the gates, what's left undone to hang around for

We'll be as we are
When all the fools
who doubt us fade away
Fortune deep and wide
Intimidated, restless in the wait
