Slipping and sliding and playing domino
Lefting and then Righting; it's not a crime you know.
You gotta tell your story boy, before it's time to go.
Are you ready for the country because it's time to go?

I was talkin' to the preacher - said God was on my side
Then I ran to the hangman - he said "it's time to die"
You gotta tell your story boy.
You know the reason why.

Are you ready for the Country -
Because it's time to go?
