Danger bird, he flies alone
And he rides the wind back to his home
Although his wings have turned to stone

And we used to be so calm [That's the moment
Now I think about you all day long that he cracked
'cause you've been with another man long ago Here you are and here I am in the museum with his friends]

The jailbird takes the raps
And he finds himself spread-eagled
On the tracks
But the training that he learned
Will get him nowhere fast

And I know we should be free
But freedom's just a prison to me [With the rain pounding
'cause I lied to keep it kind on his back he recalls
When I left you far behind the moment that he cracked long ago in the museum with his friends
And like those memories
the rain keeps pounding down, down, down].

And though these wings have turned to stone
I can fly fly fly away
Watch me fly above the city
Like a shadow on the sky
Fly, fly, fly
