People say don't rock the boat Let things go their own way Idea that one seem so right, now have gotten hard to say
I wish I could talk to you, you could talk to me

'Cause there very few of us left my friend From the days that used to be

Seem like such a simple thing to follow one's own dream
But possessions and concession are not often what they seem They drag you down and load you down in disguise of security

But we never had to make those deals in the days that used to be

Talk to me, my long lost friend, tell me how you are Are you happy with your circumstances are you driving a new car Does it get you where you wanna go, with a seven year warranty

Or just another hundred thousand miles away from days that used to be
