

Young Neil

"Natural Beauty"

Visit "Natural Beauty" on MotoLyrics.com

On the roller coaster ride
That my emotions have to take me on
I heard a newborn baby cry
Through the night
I heard a perfect echo die
Into an anonymous wall of digital sound
Somewhere deep inside
Of my soul

A natural beauty should be
Preserved like a monument to nature
Don't judge yourself too harsh my love
Or someday you might find your soul endangered
A natural beauty should be
Preserved like a monument to nature

Amazon
You had so much and now so much is gone
What are you gonna do
With your life?
What a lucky man
To see the earth before it touched his hand
What an angry fool
To condemn
One more night to go
One more sleep upon your burning banks
A greedy man never knows
What he's done

A natural beauty should be
Preserved like a monument to nature
Don't sell yourself too short my love
Or someday you might find your soul endangered
A natural beauty should be
Preserved like a monument to nature

Went to the rodeo today
I saw the cowgirls lined up on the fence
A brand new Chevrolet
A brand new pair of seamless pants
We watched the moment of defeat

Played back over the video screen
Somewhere deep inside
Of my soul

A natural beauty should be
Preserved like a monument

(Silver Fiddle Music, 1989)
Neil Young, Kenny Buttrey, Spooner Oldham, Nicolette
Larson
Live performance recorded at Civic Auditorium,
Portland, Oregon

Visit Young Neil page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.