"Black Nights"

You'll recall the angels
The hot coffee, waking up
While the news about us
Is passing by unnoticed
They say I'll need it
If it doesn't kill it makes you stronger
While your voice
Is unnoticed on TV
Your farewell will echo
Between the radio and the phone

About Black nights
Where there's no time
And there's no space
And no one will ever understand
Can you stay
Cause it hurts me hurts me
Hurts me to death
Without you

I'd think again that you're not here
But I'm distracted by the ads
Between my timetable and the traffic
I work and you're just there
Between the balcony and the entry phone
I dedicate my troubles to you

About Black nights
Where there's no time
And there's no space
And no one will ever understand
Can you stay
Cause it hurts me hurts me
Hurts me to death
Without you

I fought in silence talking to him
And smoothed your absence with my arms only
And the more you'll want me the less you'll see of me
And the less you'll want me the more I'll be with you
And the more you'll want me the less you'll see of me

And the less you'll want me the more I'll be with you
And the more I'll be with you, with you, with you, with you? I swear it

About Black nights
Where there's no time
And there's no space
And no one will ever understand
Can you stay
Cause it hurts me hurts me
Hurts me to death
Without you
