Just last week you dumped
Now I'm driving past your house
Wondering if you are at home
But all the lights were out
I'll sit outside your window
I'll stare at you inside
I see you with some chump
I can't believe you're with another guy

Your new boyfriend sucks,
He's not what you need.
Your new boyfriend sucks,
You're better off with me.

How could you forget me
How can you walk away
After all I've done for you
Up to this day?
I sent you a dozen roses
Every anniversary
And now I'm playng with myself
I'm running out of liquid soap
