Where's the peace of mind I thought I would win
I thought I found my new best friend
But now he's gone
I'm all alone
It sure feels cold

I saw an old pal The other day
It looked like he just threw his life away
Sometimes it's hard
To see such pain
And nothing's gained

But I'll keep pushing Pushing on
Though it seems
All hope is gone
Cause love prevails
After dark
There's always dawn

- solos -

I see the world Changin' every day
But some things always Remain the same
Sometimes it's so hard
To be alone
Sometimes it's cold

But I'll keep pushin', pushin' on
Though it seems all hope is gone
Cause love prevails
After dark
