

To Die For "Farewell"

Visit "Farewell" on MotoLyrics.com you've been hurt so many times you always seemed to buy their lies but that's all gone forget your past go on and dry those tears now come with me

I'll take you someplace safe the world is cold and so alone we've got no place to call our own

but I don't care
come run with me
and we will find a way
believe me now

will you take my hand
'cause nothing never ever lasts I'll seal our love for eternity

come run with me
believe me now

'cause nothing never ever lasts
