Are that tears in your eyes
Are you wandering in disguise
Do you hide away from me
Don't you want to be free
Has the dream come true
Shining colours over you
Don't you need to fight
Are you feeling right

You're supposed to bring joy
But you're just another toy
For the ones to be blessed
And the dirty laughing rest
What a life after all
With no name for you to call
May it be full of love
Cause you will never get enough

Hijra Hijra dance in vain
Dance in sorrow, forget the pain
Curse the bad ones in the sunshade
Bless the good ones in the rain
