He pauses shaving and he tells himself that he is the bomb.

She has her curlers set,
Her credit cards are paying the funds.
He's not that old,
I've been told a strong sexual goal.
They go out every day,
She goes every way, oh yeah,
And they don't even care at all.

She's open, waiting for more.
And I know he's only looking to score.
And it is way too unhealthy,
Often they've typically,
Been starved for attention before.

She smokes a dozen,
And he doesn't seem to notice the smell.
He took the seat off his own bike,
Because the way that it felt.
He wants to bone,
This I know,
She is ready to blow.
They go out every night,
His pants are super tight, oh yeah,
They don't even care at all.

She's open, waiting for more.
And I know he's only looking to score.
And it is way too unhealthy,
Often they've typically,
Been starved for attention before.
