"Rumours"

Visit "Rumours" on MotoLyrics.com

There's no place for me
In this reality
I try to escape from here
Just to everywhere

The rumours that I heard
Say there's another world
Behind that ugly face
Beyond the lonely days

No horizon anymore
Nothing else worth living for
Everything just dissapears
The rest is filled up with my fears

My work is done

I should better go
I lost my sense
Somehow

The rumours that I heard
Say there's another world
Behind that ugly face
Beyond the lonely days

The rumours that I heard...
The rumours that I heard...

The rumours that I heard
Say there's another world
Behind that ugly face
Beyond the lonely days
