I can stare into your deep brown eyes
Til the sun goes down and the fireflies light up the sky, light up the sky
I'll run my hands through your soft, dark hair
Kiss you through the night, hope your lips don't care

I think I'm in love now
I think I'm in love now

I'm getting closer to you
I wanna know everything about you, if you're feeling
this way too
It seems like we are nearly at the stage where we should be
Want you to get closer to me

I think I can recall back when we laid on your couch until 6am
Slept through the morning
I woke up next to your body
Wrapped up in your arms oh so comfortably

I think I'm in love now
I think I'm in love now

I'm getting closer to you
I wanna know everything about you, if you're feeling
this way too
It seems like we are nearly at the stage where we
should be
Want you to get closer to me

I don't know where to go from here
Guess I'll just whisper in your ear
You're everything I'll ever need
And as we lay under the moonlight, it feels right
Just you and me
There's nowhere else I'd rather be

Kiss me like you love me, like you want me to be yours
Hold me closely, don't ever let me go

I'm getting closer to you
I wanna know everything about you, if you're feeling
this way too
It seems like we are nearly at the stage where we
should be
Want you to get closer to me
