Underneath the core is there something you ignore?
The sun don't shine right through the lies Bullet proof you seem Never ever intervene with crossing roads in the dark

What's the secret to your fight?
What's the secret to your smile?
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok
What's the secret to your skin?
So thick the world can't sink in
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok

Fearless in the day, show the world that shining face
God knows where it turns in the night
Your colors cast the warmth, but inside you're freezing cold
Can't melt the ice from winter's bite

What's the secret to your fight?
What's the secret to your smile?
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok
What's the secret to your skin?
So thick the world can't sink in
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok

Don't become numb
Please please please don't don't become numb Stay flawless like you are Please please stay flawless like you are Don't be broken
Please please please just stay unbroken
How do you keep from dying on the outside?

What's the secret to your fight?
What's the secret to your smile?
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok

What's the secret to your skin?
So thick the world can't sink in
What's the secret to the things you say, you say, you
say you're ok

You say, you say, you say you're ok
You say, you say, you say you're ok
