Am I right?
I can still do this in my mind
But the longer it takes, it gets harder on me
Am I right?

It's okay
You've taken enough of the blame
But the longer it takes, it gets harder on you
It's okay

This is too fast
This is not everything you're taking from me
STOP, pull back
You're stealing me, you're leaving me without a hope
A dream of my own alone

Would you doubt?
My intentions are real
Every breath, every kiss, it falls over you
Would you doubt?

This is too fast
This is not everything you're taking from me
STOP, pull back
You're stealing me, you're leaving me without a hope
A dream of my own

You held on to me as long as I needed you to
I can't keep holding on to you!
Stop, pull back
You're stealing me!

STOP, pull back
You're stealing me, you're leaving me without a hope
A dream of my own alone
A dream of my own
