Stay until the morning and maybe you'll forget
Try hard to remember how we were when we first met
Is that feeling still there, a part of you?
Must still care

So don't give up on us quite yet
I know right now it hurts, but don't believe the part of you that says it just won't work
What we had back then is still enough
So don't give up on us
Don't give up on us

All these memories, they sting Nothing left to hold on to Like a firework on New Year's Day, but we never light the fuse
There used to be so much to say, now we're just passing through the days
Trying hard to get it back

So don't give up on us quite yet
I know right now it hurts, but don't believe the part of
you that says it just won't work
What we had back then is still enough
So don't give up on us

I hate the hard times too
But I know I belong right here with you Please believe that too

Don't give up on us quite yet
I know right now it hurts, but don't believe the part of you that's had enough

Don't give up on us quite yet
I know right now it hurts, but don't believe the part of
you that says it just won't work
What we had back then is still enough
So don't give up on us

So don't give up on us

So don't give up on us
Don't give up on us

Stay until the morning, and maybe you'll forgetâ€¦
