"Guide Me"

I watch the leaves change from orange to brown
I watch the first snow fall without a sound
I walk this lonely earth alone
I just want you to guide me home

I watch the snow as it melts away
As the ghost of me fades to another day
Transcend the night as it fades to white
I just want you to guide me home

Don't worry I'll be home soon
(As we become one again)
Don't worry I'll be home soon
(As we become one again)
Don't worry I'll be home soon
(As we become one again)

As the seasons change I want you to guide me home
(Guide me home)
As the seasons change I want you to guide me home
(Guide me home)

Guide me home tonight
Guide me home tonight
