Can you fall asleep tonight
To every lie he told you
Why can't you just wave goodbye?
Before your heart is torn in two
Why can't you just let go of him?
And everything he did to you
Why can't you just let go of him?
And every night he loved you

Is this what you really want?
As you cry yourself to sleep
Is it just how you were taught?
Let every promise he didn't keep
Don't fall for his charm
Things are never what they seem
And are you afraid?
You're in a nightmare not at dream

[Chorus]
Break away, break away from his pain
(As he's falling away)
Break away, break away
(As he's slipping away)
Break away, break away from his pain
(As he's falling away)
Break away, break away
(As he's slipping away)

You never listen to your friends
They only want the best for you
It's easier to pretend
That he's really in love with you
And as he grows bored
He'll tell you that you're done you're through
And as it falls apart
He says nothing at all to you

[Chorus x2]
