You slam the door I'm all alone
There's no one there but I'll go home
How could you say those things to me?
And then just ask for me to leave
And I'll go
Tears in my eyes

[Chorus]
Rain falls through the window
(It's falling down)
It makes it hard for me to breathe
There's more to life than you know
(You'll never know)
And there's more out there than you'll ever see

It's a long drive home
And I'm so alone
Rain pours onto the ground
But I can't hear the sound

[Chorus]
Crash through door, fall on my bed
Think about the thoughts and words you said
There's so much more to life than this
I'll laugh when you find everything you missed
And I'll go
Grin on my cheek

I'll slam the door you're all alone
There's no one here so just go home
You just scream those things at me
When I just ask for you to leave

[Chorus]
And I'll go
But there's no tears in my eyes
And I'll go, no tears in my eyes
