Look I know the supernatural is something that isn't supposed to happen, but it does happen...)

Jesus lived his life in a cheap hotel on the edge of Route 66, yeah!

He lived a dark and twisted life and he came right back
just to do it again!

Eye for and eye and a tooth for the truth - I ain't never seen a demon warp deal'n

A ring-a-ding rhythm or jukebox racket - my mind can't clutch the feeling, yeah!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH!

Hell hounds leap at the cowardly kings and carry souls
across the river Styx, yeah!

They see no evil and feel no pain, sucking juice from a fallen angel!

I dreamed I was a super nova fucker nitro-burning and fuel injection!

Feed the godz a strychnine soul - a motherfucker of invention!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH!

(latin chanting)

(It is not heresy, and I will not recant!)

Yeah, inbreed the witches and worship the dogs - deformed and fuck'n lazy!

Damn yourself and choke on my name I'd love to love
ya baby!

Deadringer rats swinging in the trees - immaculate conception

Bury me an angel, God, I need some inspiration! YEAH!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH!

DEVILMAN - DEVILMAN, calling DEVILMAN running my
head, YEAH
