Wasn't it hard?
Did we want penance?
Summer's so long
Colder men when their ice prayer never came

Didn't we fight it?
Weren't we hard?
Holdin' back a friend of mine
All the way come home
Aren't we the ones who never got tired?

Wasn't it magic?
The flames rolled and I said "Ok"
Weren't we just asking
Something to come our way?

Are we another, were we afraid?
Is there a hope that we'll wait
To walk a time?

He's a long road
And I feel like a newborn again
But the night holds on
Hello, I'm comin' home

Ahh haa ahh

Do we mind waitin'?
Don't be ashamed
Comin' here in the black dark night
And I don't feel so strange

Are we the lady, were we afraid?
Are we the summer?
