Struggling to keep my head above water
Looking back to what I used to live with Talk you're losing sight of me
I'm always out to make a scene

Slow down this isn't you
This isn't me trying to tell you
But that's how it seems
Talking has never come so easy
Forget you're forgetting me
Talk you're losing sight of as you should be
You say "grow up" I say "trying"
Is this how you wanted to see me?

I can barely stand on my own 2 feet but I'll show up with broken bones and burnt hands and all
Is this why you wouldn't believe me?
I can barely stand on my own 2 feet
Is this how you wanted to see me?
