Under a sleeping moon

I wake and wait and I walk through the garden

A symbol of death

Under a searching moon

I watch the white swans passing by

A black lake

A symbol of death

I would go back, I would go home

If you could forgive me again

Covered in blue velvet night

The garden reminds me on something

I guess my childhood

A symbol of death

Covered in blue velvet cries

I disappear from satans garden

I watch the lake

No symbol anym ore

I will never forgive you, for what youÂ´ve done

I hate you, too

In the garden

I will lose myself

In the garden

I will lose myself

You're taking my cold hands

Everybody's alone, alone again
