[Intro: The Man Who Would Be King sample] So there's a question of jurisdiction involved But a charge of conspiracy to blackmail might be brought I didn't lay this information before you as a criminal prosecution, sir Only to save their lives But, may I ask what particular interest you have in these scoundrels? Well, they happen to be.. Freemasons. Like myself Freemasons? Those chaps? I'd think you'd strike them off your roll! Oh, once a Mason, always a Mason Never could understand how perfectly pukka chaps like yourself Can go about on public occasions, wearing aprons and sashes and shaking hands with total strangers Just, what is Masonry, Kipling? Oh, It's an ancient order.. Dedicated to the brotherhood of man, under the all seeing eye of God We should have done well to have left that sort of thing behind us in England. It can never work here Oh there are tales that it did work here, before we ever came Some audacious scholars can trace it back to the builders of Solomon's Temple Old wives' tales, I suspect Yes, in all likelihood, sir Well, let's have a look at your lodge brothers [samples] "MC freemasonry, with the gavel, mystery unraveled" - Christbearer "Do the knowledge to the master build the, blow and the spliff The new millennium, hide them a beef" - NYG'z "Did you know about the science of creation About the Masons, about their nation Of disarm, this arm, A Leg-a-Leg Arm-a Head To the thirty-third degree, you know that's me" - House of Pain "The rejected stone is now the cornerstone Sort of like the master builder when I make my way home" - Guru "Melchizedek a skyscraper" - RZA [Chorus: G-Clef Da Mad Komposa] Man, have a seat, ya whole history's a lie The mysteries alive, god will survive You can try to deny, ya world's not awry All human beings must die [G-Clef Da Mad Komposa] I remain anonymous, under the name G-Clef A travelling knight of the east and the west I try to tell you things that I think you outta know But just because you know me, don't make you a bro You in the matrix, souless, faceless If you recognize my spark, and don't try to embrace this Then ya lost - an animal - a robot I have no patience, for one who knows not Focus ya thoughts, and try to concentrate I'm calling ya soul to awakesness, welcome to greatness And leave ya stupid life alone I clean you with the poem, John the Baptist on the microphone All you sinners gonna die, but every religion thinks they got it For some the church is gettin' high, till the truth hits them like a comet [Chorus] [Archangel Metatron] But I survived.. There was a time when I was blind-folded and neck-noosed Then I awoke orbiting earth looking down at the truth From the outside lookin' in, witnessin', the masses lead towards sin That night I had a dream, that there was no more drugs in Queens No reason to thug for cream, that life was lived for love it seemed No seperation, between the spirit and science Jews and Muslims formed an alliance Then I woke again, back on earth some shots rang A mother, a sister, a daughter was taken for granted Everywhere I turn, humans forsaking my planet People living and dying for fakeness, y'all are savage Y'all can stay average, this is Metatron Templar Knight built with Tall Cedars of Lebanon I build my spiritual temple forever I swear Yo Clef, I'll meet you on the level (G-Clef Da Mad Komposa: Now we parting on the Square) [Chorus] [G-Clef Da Mad Komposa] Some seem to resent me, when I speak this truth The fear in ya ear, cause pain to the brain You just complain, but that style ain't never comin' up Dumb it up, novacain rappers just numb it up The masses taking classes on how to be asses But Lost Secret got the key and we givin' free passes Pay attention, we dealing in ascension Try to live ya life right, and may I just mention All the people who try to do good You like an army, especially if you just would Stand up unite and take no halves Don't let them play you, they just a bunch of crabs What would you do if I told you money don't exist Would you get pissed? Or would you be ecstatic? I find it tragic, all the idolatry I see I think I'll make another flood and cast it all into the fucking sea [samples] "Mighty architect, creator of all, and rest within the universe Soon to burst, acid, rocks, flesh and silver Never speak in questions, the scriptures of a building" - Holocaust "MC freemasonry, with the gavel, mystery unraveled" - Christbearer "Do the knowledge to the master build the, blow and the spliff The new millennium, hide them a beef" - NYG'z "Did you know about the science of creation About the Masons, about their nation Of disarm, this arm, A Leg-a-Leg Arm-a Head To the thirty-third degree, you know that's me" - House of Pain "The rejected stone is now the cornerstone Sort of like the master builder when I make my way home" - Guru "Melchizedek a skyscraper" - RZA
