I know you keep a journal and every page is rippled
From the tears that you cry, ain't no meaning to your scribble
'Cause words can't describe what you've been feeling inside
It's like thousand foot walls, and they're still on the rise

But look up to a beautiful sound
And see for yourself you're not that far down
And know this, I cannot love a little
My promise to you is unconditional

I'll keep the light on, baby
Just keep the course, you can weather the storm
Keep the light on, baby
You've come this far, don't you ever lose heart, now

Just turn around and I'll be there
I'm moving into your atmosphere
Just turn around and I'll be there
I'm moving into your atmosphere

I know you're all alone in a crowd full of friends
I can see it in your eyes that your fading again
Checking out, moving into your hole
Where the light can't touch any part of your soul

But hold up and let the river rush in
You can turn around and start living again
'Cause your life is a beautiful bloom
In the image of the one that created you

I'll keep the light on, baby
Just keep the course, you can weather the storm
Keep the light on, baby
You've come this far, don't you ever lose heart, now

Just turn around and I'll be there
(I'll be there)
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(I'll be there)
Just turn around and I'll be there

(I'll be there)
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(And I'll be there)
I'll be there, I'll be there

Said, "I'll be there" Said, "I'll be there"
Said, "I'll be there always, forever"
Said, "I'll be there" Said, "I'll be there"
Said, "I'll be there always, forever"

Just turn around and I'll be there
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
Just turn around and I'll be there
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")

I'll be there
(I'll keep the light on, baby)
I'll be there
(I'll keep the light on, baby)
I'll be there
(I'll keep the light on, baby)
I'll be there
(I'll keep the light on, baby)
I'll be there

Just turn around and I'll be there
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
(I'll be there)
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
(I'll be there)
Just turn around and I'll be there
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
(I'll be there)
I'm moving into your atmosphere
(Said, "I'll be there always, forever")
(I'll be there)
