"She Dances"

I count to three but still feel the four
She corrects me out on the floor
"This is a waltz just relax"
But my clumsy feet send me tripping back

It doesn't seem that I'll ever get it right
She's so free I'm so uptight
She's far away but within my reach
If I trust and just let her teach

There's no other place I'd rather be
When she dances the way she dances with me

Circling as if suspended on air
So adrift yet so aware
Arm 'round my waist eyes locked with mine
She leads me with grace through space and time

There's no other place I'd rather be
When she dances the way she dances with me

Here in our room we close the door
You lead me right to the dance floor
Your eyes reflect how I feel inside
As you love me with grace through space and time

There's no other place I'd rather be
When she dances the way she dances with me

There's no other place I'd rather be
When she dances the way she dances with me
