Five minutes on the hour, every hour on the hour
Five minutes of the latest blues.

To think about you all day long would drive me to despair
To miss you every minute would be more that I could bear
So I've learned to turn your mem'ry on and off inside
my mind
And just miss you five minutes at a time.

Five minutes on the hour, every hour on the hour
Five minutes set aside for missin' you
Five minutes on the hour, every hour on the hour
Five minutes of the latest blues.

--- Instrumental ---

It's not as easy as it sounds your mem'ry's so alive
I find it hard forgetting you the other fifty-five
So I keep busy doing things to occupy my mind
And just miss you five minutes at a time.

Five minutes on the hour, every hour on the hour
Five minutes set aside for missin' you
Five minutes on the hour, every hour on the hour
Five minutes of the latest blues.

Five minutes of the latest blues...
