(Fred Rose - Ed G. Nelson - Steve Nelson)

Oh, don't your conscience ever bother you
Everytime you hear my name
Try and think of all that I've gone through
And hang your head in shame.

Oh, someone came along and took my place
Then you gave me all the blame
Now you should go somewhere and hide your face
And hang your head in shame.

--- Instrumental ---

I should hate you but I love you still
In my heart I've kept the flame
Now you'll be sorry, darling yes, you will
And hang your head in shame...
